

Five Killed, Many Injured In Wreck Early Last Thurs.

WALD, Ala., Sept. 29.—Speeding northward on schedule, the Crescent Limited, fast New Orleans to New York passenger train, collided head on with a freight train emerging from a siding this morning, killing four trainmen and injuring six trainmen, three seriously, and four passengers.

The dead—Tom Cowell, Montgomery, engineer of the limited; Malcolm Rodgers, of Ocean Springs, Miss., mail clerk; Muck Ball, of Mobile, negro brakeman on the freight train; and one injured—J. W. Phillips, of Montgomery, engineer of the freight train, were taken to the hospital early this afternoon.

Four passengers were slightly injured, and one seriously. The train was wrecked about 10:30 a. m. The freight train was coming from the south, and the passenger train was coming from the north.

The wreck occurred on the main line between the towns of Wald and Greenville. The passenger train was traveling at a high speed when it entered the siding.

The freight train was carrying a load of lumber. The collision caused the passenger train to derail and the freight train to catch fire.

The bodies of the four trainmen were found near the wreckage. The bodies of the six injured trainmen were taken to the hospital.

Sudden Death Of Rev. C. O. Helms A Distinct Shock

(Opp Weekly News)

Friends in Opp and other places over the State were shocked and deeply saddened, when news was spread on Sunday evening that Rev. C. O. Helms had died, at his home on Park Avenue. He had been in apparently good health until a very short time before his death. He had spent Sunday in Florida, attending an all day memorial singing, to his father. He returned to Opp about four o'clock and complained of a severe headache, but went on about the dairy which he owned and operated, when he was stricken suddenly. He called to his wife, who rushed to his side and gave him a drink of cold grape juice, after which he lost consciousness. Some friends were called, who helped get him to a bed, and a physician summoned, but he never did regain consciousness, and death came a few minutes before six o'clock.

His pastor, Rev. W. E. Fuller, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. John McGuire of Montgomery, Rev. Haley Lisenby of the First Baptist Church of Opp, Rev. G. H. Shear and Rev. R. E. Eiland. Interment took place in the local cemetery. The numerous local offerings and the large concourse of friends and relatives present attested the love and esteem in which this fine Christian was held by his community. He was survived by his five sons: V. C. Helms, C. R. Helms, O. C. Helms and H. B. Helms, and one son-in-law, Leo C. Langston. Honorary pall bearers were: J. B. Johnson, J. E. Cheatham, R. S. Jeffcoat and R. O. Pags. The deceased was a native of Alabama, and was a member of the First Baptist Church of Opp, where he had been a member for many years.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at four o'clock from the First Baptist Church, of which he was a faithful and devoted member. His pastor, Rev. W. E. Fuller, conducted the services, assisted by Rev. John McGuire of Montgomery, Rev. Haley Lisenby of the First Baptist Church of Opp, Rev. G. H. Shear and Rev. R. E. Eiland. Interment took place in the local cemetery.

Good Crowd Witnesses Basin School Opening

Basin school opened with appropriate exercises Monday, and a large number of parents and friends were present to show their loyalty and interest and to pledge themselves for a full year's service in the school, according to a report reaching The Clipper.

Rev. L. W. Tabb of the Elba M. E. Church had charge of the devotional and his admonition for cooperation of both teachers and parents for a good school year was very inspiring.

Miss Aylie Hughes, county home-demonstration agent, made a most pleasing talk, and interestingly told of her beginning in Coffee County. Hughes was celebrating her fourth anniversary in coming to the county.

Miss Harris, the county supervisor, brought some of the year's objectives to the parents and children. She also gave some interesting and interesting accounts of the P. T. A. She was very inspirational, and the information she gave was a cordial welcome at all services.

Services are to be held Tuesday, at 11:00 o'clock in the morning and at 7:15 in the evening. Everybody is invited and will receive a cordial welcome at all services.

Leaders for the year are: Mrs. Lamar Rainer and Mrs. R. S. Boyd were visitors to Dr. Nathan Lane.

Frank Lane of Ft. Benning, Ga., is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Lane.

Mrs. Lucy Martin, Mrs. Pugh Weeks, Miss Beatrice Sager, Miss Francis Hutchison, Miss Marie Ingram and Mrs. Bartlett Ingram were dinner guests of Miss Mildred Lee Saturday.

Demonstration Club Leaders Named For Year's Work

The reorganization of leadership schools of Coffee County Home Demonstration Club Women took place recently, with Mrs. Mabel Fleming, of Calvary Club, chairman, and Mrs. Walter Nichols, of Mt. Pleasant Club, secretary. Fifty-two women were named leaders and assistants for the next twelve months, and will aid Miss Aylie Hughes, County Home Demonstration Agent, in instructing the members of the thirteen clubs in the year's work.

Four leadership schools are held each year, when members of the extension service from Auburn assist Miss Hughes in work with the leaders, who, in turn, carry the instructions to their own club members. At the first leadership school, held five years ago, only five women were present. Thirty-five attended the one held in the high school building in Elba on Wednesday, when Miss Dorothy Dean, district specialist, assisted Miss Hughes, in demonstrating the alteration of commercial patterns, fitting, and this women, and solving the problem of sleeve fitting.

If you are purchasing your 1933 license before November 1st, there will be no penalty and you will be able to operate same up to and including November 14th. There will be no penalty if you do not intend purchasing a new license, but you must store your motor vehicle on or before November 14th, you will be required to purchase a 1933 tag with legal force on November 14th.

If you operate one or more of your motor vehicles on or before November 14th, you will be required to purchase a 1933 tag with legal force on November 14th. If you have purchased a new motor vehicle, you must purchase a 1933 tag within three days—not on the fourth day. On the fourth day citation fee and penalty will be added.

If you trade cars or your tag goes with it and remains on it in the hands of the new owner or successor owners for the balance of the year, and it is the duty of the old and new successive owners to report any change in ownership to the judge of Probate within five (5) days from such change of ownership. Attend to it in time and save charges.

Mr. McDaniel went to Brundage to embark in business for himself and will begin next week. He had splendid encouragement from the business men and people generally in Brundage. We feel sure that with the proper patronage Mr. McDaniel will prosper. In expressing our regrets at losing this good family we speak the sentiment of the people of Elba who had come to know and esteem them so highly. And we commend them to the people of Brundage and wish for them much success and happiness in their new home.

COLUMBIAN DAY
Columbus Day, October 12, now observed in most states, marks the discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, a Genoese, in the year 1492, the date being uncertain, he was the son of a woollen merchant. He received his education in science and navigation at the University of Pavia, and went to sea at the age of 25.

During the next few years he visited most of the ports of the westward, having been convinced of the spherical shape of the earth, and his desire for exploration of exploration he appeared in vain to the rulers of Genoa, Portugal and England, and finally to Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain.

After many heart-breaking refusal delays Queen Isabella at last was instrumental in financing
the voyage, with three small ships, the Santa Maria, 30 men; Pinta, 30 men, and Nina, 24 men—being sailed from Pinos on August 6, 1492. During the voyage four of the sailors nearly caused mutiny when Columbus kept them in hand and on October 12, 1492, was rewarded by the sight of land, which proved to be an island, probably one of the Bahama group.

Attempts at colonization and other voyages followed, but disapsatisfaction with the rule of Columbus resulted in his being sent back to Spain in chains. Although he was permitted to make his fourth and last voyage after that, he was never returned to his rights, and he died a broken and forsaken man on May 20, 1506, at Val-adolid, Spain.

But his remains were still returned to his Atlantic again and returned. He was buried first at Seville, Spain; then his body was removed to Havana, Cuba, in 1795, and finally back to Seville in 1898.

widespread throughout the United

COLUMBIAN DAY
Columbus Day, October 12, now
observed in most states, marks the
discovery of America by Christopher Columbus, a Genoese, in the year 1492, the date being uncertain, he was the son of a woollen merchant. He received his education in science and navigation at
the University of Pavia, and went to sea at the age of 25.

During the next few years he
visited most of the ports of the
westward, having been convinced
of the spherical shape of the
earth, and his desire for exploration of exploration he appeared in
vain to the rulers of Genoa, Portugal
and England, and finally
to Ferdinand and Isabella of Spain.

After many heart-breaking refusal delays Queen Isabella at last
was instrumental in financing
the voyage, with three small ships,
the Santa Maria, 30 men; Pinta, 30 men, and Nina, 24 men—being
sailed from Pinos on August 6,
